while we're slow, let's look forward to some New Year's 2024 swing watchers: 🐼

Below are tickers which all have some of the same criteria:

- coming off OB for puts // bouncing off OS for calls
- have lots of clean road in front of them to the upper or lower bands of their channels, but if there's a nearby obstruction, we'll call it out
- G for gap fill play, as always
- Our normal swing behavior= 30-45 days out for expirations
- closing out any swing wins by the end of the first FULL week of expiration month
- examples: 01/19exp closes out 01/05 Friday, 02/16exp closes out 02/09
- usual rules for entry should apply, make sure it's moving in the right direction // SL at -25% firm // it's not going ur way if it reaches that level on a longer exp. swing
