A lot of talk out there about paper traders and private discords that aren't in the fighting pits with all of you. NOT the case with us. No, we don't take every single trade alert we put out, our alerts are based on ALGO's that work out quite often. And while we do have our share of small losses (set ur stops), from the small sampling of recent shots below, you'll see we are ABSOLUTELY ACTIVE TRADERS with you.
